From the Rector

I want to share with you this morning an excerpt from Anita Corrine Donihue's book, "Here I am, Lord."

Bring my country back to You

What was our country like spiritually when it was first founded, Lord? Was it as fine and noble as the historians depict? Or did our forefathers also have their share of struggling with right and wrong? I read how humankind in this country repeatedly made serious errors. They fell away from You for a time, then experienced Your holy presence and great spiritual awakenings. Thank You for brave Christian leaders who went wherever You led them and obeyed Your will. Thank You, too, for those who rocked cradles and molded young lives in becoming those leaders.

What of our churches, Lord? Thank You for their starting schools, hospitals, and organizations to help the orphaned and needy. Help us to continue doing good and hold on to the Christian principles our nation was founded upon. Help us as a Christian body in our country to love and care for one another and turn our back on sin, back-biting, and inner destruction.

Perhaps I can't be as great as those Christian leaders of old, Lord, but I can rock the cradle, teach the children and adults, and bring dear ones to Your throne of grace. Help me fast and pray through the night for one more lost soul to come to You.

So here I am, Lord, asking, pleading. Please bring our country back to You.

"Turn us around and bring us back to you again! That is our only hope! Give us back the joys we used to have!"

Rev. Ed

A Stewardship Thought for the Week

Have you ever heard anyone say, "My church is always asking for money. I wish I could belong to a church that never needed money!"

I'm sure these people don't really mean that. Any church that is alive needs money. Only dead churches do not call on their members for support. If anyone should accuse your church of always needing and calling for money, regard it as a compliment. Invite this person to rejoice with you that you both belong to a living, growing concern of Jesus Christ rather than a dead, stagnant organization from which the glory of Christ has departed.

Church Chuckle

A church pastor had a kitten that climbed up a tree in his backyard and was afraid to come down. The tree was not sturdy enough to climb, so the pastor decided to tie a rope to his car and drive away so that the tree bent down enough to reach kitten.

But as he moved a little forward, the rope broke. The tree went "boing" and the kitten sailed through the air and out of sight.

The pastor felt terrible. He searched the neighbourhood but nobody had seen a stray kitten. So he prayed, "Lord, I just commit this kitten to your keeping," and went on about his business.

A few days later he met one of his church members at the grocery store. He was amazed to see cat food since this woman was a cat hater and everyone knew it, so he asked her, "Why are you buying cat food when you hate cats so much?"

She told him how her little girl had been begging her for a cat, but she kept refusing. Then a few days before, the Mom finally told her little girl, "Well, if God gives you a cat, I'll let you keep it."

She told the pastor, "I watched my child go out in the yard, get on her knees, and ask God for a cat. And really, Pastor, you won't believe this, but I saw it with my own eyes. A kitten suddenly came flying out of the sky, with its paws outspread, and landed right in front of her."

Never underestimate the Power of God and God's unique sense of humor and the way God answers prayers.

Collect, Epistle and Gospel for the 14th Sunday after Pentecost Scripture Readings for today, August 30th

1st Reading: Song of Solomon 2: 8 – 13 Psalm 47: 1 – 2, 7 – 10 (Page 764) (Margaret Boone)

2nd Reading: James 1: 17 – 27 (Joyce Keeping)

Gospel: Mark 7: 1 – 8, 14 – 15, 21 – 23 (Rev. Ed Bonnell)

The Scriptural Sentence for our worship today as appointed in our BAS Lectionary, Page 377:

The Father brought us forth by the word of truth that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

Collect for the Day: (In Unison): Author and Giver of all good things, graft in our hearts the love of your name, increase in us true religion, nourish us in all goodness, and of your great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Collect for Launching out into the Deep: (In Unison): Bless, O Lord our God, the worship and work of this church. Grant that it may faithfully “launch out into the deep” and respond to the call of Jesus to be fishers of people. By the power of your Holy Spirit, make it a house of prayer, a centre of Christian teaching and disciples in learning; a community of loving and sacrificial service and a witness to your redeeming love, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts: (In Unison): Merciful God, receive all we offer you this day. Give us grace to love one another that your love may be perfect in us. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer after Communion: (In Unison): Almighty God, you renew us at your table with the bread of life. May your holy food strengthen us in love and help us to serve you in each other. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
